

An Afternoon with.

Meg Warner

"A son has been born to Naomi:
The Politics of Begetting in the Book of Ruth"

Come along and explore how the story of Ruth challenged the mainstream ideologies of its time. This is a rare chance to engage actively with exciting new biblical scholarship, regardless of the extent of your knowledge of the Old Testament. You may like to bring your own Bible.

St Margaret's Anglican Church 79-81 Pitt Street Eltham

Saturday 13 August 2011 – 2.00pm-5.00pm

Cost: $15 Concession: $12

For more information and to book

Tel: 9432 9774 Email: katgazz@optusnet.com.au

St Margaret's Anglican Church Eltham

Who is Meg Warner?

Meg is the first Morna Sturrock Doctoral Fellow at Trinity College and she is described as one of Australia's most talented young theological academics.

Meg Warner is completing her doctoral studies on narratives of Abraham within the Book of Genesis.

The Afternoon:

Is an initiative of MOWatch Incorporated and is jointly sponsored by MOWatch Inc and St Margaret's Anglican Church Eltham. Profit from the afternoon will be donated to the Morna Sturrock Doctoral Fellowship at Trinity College. Leigh MacKay will speak briefly about the Fellowship fund.